State law requires that a party balance be maintained among judges in the precinct as there are specific tasks that require representations from different political parties, i.e. curbside voting, emptying the ballot box, initialing ballots etc.

For this reason, you are required to disclose your party affiliation. This information will only be shared with the head judge in the precinct you are working in. You do have the option of serving as a non-partisan judge; however, you would be unable to complete some of the tasks in the precinct.

Do you have previous experience as an election judge? YES NO

If yes, please explain _____
